Q.6 - Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

Compact Discs (CDs) have revolutionised the music industry with their surprisingly realistic sound. The six-inch discs look like thin plastic sandwiches with aluminium at the centre. They have digitally recorded material that is read by laser beams, so the sound does not crackle like of vinyl records. CDs are also virtually indestructible, and they are lighter and smaller than conventional records. Since their introduction, CDs have become more affordable and widely available. In fact, they are now sold in electronics and video stores that didn't formerly carry records or cassettes.

There has been a phenomenal growth in the sale of CDs. Sales climbed dramatically during the second half of the 1980s. In the 1990, sales have been even greater. CDs have all but replaced records in stores and, in spite of their being less affordable than cassettes, they continue to gain popularity.

1. The main appeal of CDs in music industry is their _____:

- a) Price      b) Size      c) availability      d) sound

2. The word 'revolutionised' as used in line 1 could best be replaced by:

- a) changed                      b) fought                      c) surprised                      d) marked

3. The author refers to CDs as 'sandwiches' because they :

- a) are light                      b) are small                      c) are layered                      d) don't crackle

4. According to the passage, which one of the following is true?

- a) new kinds of stores are selling CDs
b) CDs are available as cassettes
c) stores are selling more/CDs than cassettes
d) stores are losing money on their cassettes

5. The author's main purpose is to :

- a) tell how CDs are made
b) discuss the growth of scale CDs
c) compare CDs to sandwiches
d) describe the stores that sell CDs

Q.1 - Rearrange the following poem:

Words Never Die

As long as there is memory,
A word can never be recalled,
No word is ever dead.
It remains forever said.

.....

.....

.....

And sometimes in memory,
Can bring grief to a heat.
Now careless words once spoken,
These words can never depart.

.....

.....

.....

To see that what we say each day,
Makes the world a better place to be.
It's up to you and me.
Since words live on forever,

.....

.....

.....

.....
