

Mrs. Bhabani Nande is the Senior Mistress of the Secondary Wing of our school. She is a Post Graduate in Geography from Utkal University, Bhubaneswar. In addition to this, she has a PGDCA from CMC and holds a B.Ed. from Dr.PMIASE, Sambalpur. Besides being a skilled and expert Geography teacher, she influences and motivates the adolescent minds in a positive way. She has attended many workshops and training programmes by CBSE and other academic bodies in different subject areas. Her core areas of functioning are pedagogical planning, supervising and executing day to day affairs in Secondary Wing of our school. She has got more than two decades of teaching Social Science besides holding many responsibilities of the school. She is hard working, focused and dedicated towards the jobs assigned to her. She is a highly enthusiastic school leader and has tremendous empathy for the students and fellow colleagues. Her presence always makes a difference. She takes care of the overall coordination of classes IX and X as well as the academic progress and other related aspects like subject allocation, remedial teaching and students' affairs etc. She tries to inculcate right aptitudes and values among the students and teachers of her Wing. She also heads the department of Social Science. She believes in achieving excellence through team work.