

R. K. TRIVEDI, PRINCIPAL

Mr. R.K.Trivedi, the Principal of O. P. Jindal School, Raigarh and the Dean of OPJ Group of Schools is a seasoned educationist, an avant-garde visionary, and a leader par excellence with a proven track record of educational administration and management. He is a visionary professional with a rich experience of more than three decades in education, training, administration of educational institutes, sports promotion, community development & corporate social responsibility. He has successfully accomplished many tasks. He is also a keen planner & implementer with a track record of developing operational procedures & policies, systems & controls, motivational schemes & education standards for professionals during his career span. He is a dedicated and self-motivated leader with proficiency in handling the administrative activities entailing event management, faculty appraisal/training, student-parent relationship and upholding of the organisation's vision.

Mr. Trivedi is a Post Graduate in Astro-Physics along with a degree in B. Ed. He obtained his PG Diploma in PMIR from IPMIR, Chandigarh. He takes a keen interest in behavioural management too. He has attended various workshops and training sessions conducted by CBSE, NCERT, IIA, NUEPA, IIM-A, NISM and many other institutes of repute. He has chaired various conferences, educational meets and seminars at the national level. His educational philosophy and thoughts have been published in various magazines and journals of repute. He always advocates for reaching out to the under privileged and making education affordable for all.

Under his stewardship, the school has achieved new heights and set many milestones such as the coveted International School Award from British Council for four consecutive times, Computer Literacy Award from Ministry of Communication & IT, National License to Operate the IAYP from the Duke of Edinburgh, to associate with UNESCO through ASP Net to name a few. He has been instrumental in building up this institution from scratch to the present iconic level. In the process, the school has bagged many prestigious awards and accolades and become a brand name. He is also the proud recipient of many coveted awards like "Golden Peacock Award" for the CSR initiatives, "Sports Promotion Award" and "CBSE Teachers' Award" from MHRD, Govt. of India and many more accolades from institutions like RBI and eLETS India. In addition to the complete establishment of O.P. Jindal School, Raigarh, he has played key pivotal role in establishing 8 schools in the remote areas of Chhattisgarh, Odisha and Jharkhand.

With his rich and varied experience, multi-faceted personality and many inspiring qualities, Mr. Trivedi leads the school community with his vision and dedication. His educational philosophy is oriented towards the masses and he champions the cause of making quality education accessible to all the sections of the society. He believes in creating leaders. A veteran in the field of education, he is passionate about the educational upliftment of the locality through innovation, creating a knowledge hub, sharing best practices and creating a better world for the young learners.