Dear Diary,

Today was my first day of the school. I was very excited, at the same time , a bit nervous to go to the school. The school was very big and my classroom very spacious. Since it was the first day of my school, I wanted to create a good impression on teachers. So, I sat on the first bench. I was asked to give self-introduction to my fellow mates in the classroom. I was embarrassed , but somehow gave a short introduction about myself. Then one girl named Tina approached me and asked a few things like where I stay, from which place I am. The conversation with Tina seemed to be interrogative but comfortable. Tina and I toured the school, and I enjoyed it. For now, I consider Tina as my best friend in the school. Overall, the first day experience in the new school was interesting.

Wishing myself good luck !

Good night my dear diary
Kalpana
