READING COMPREHENSION

(C) Answer these questions.

Ans 1. Sindbad was an adventurous sailor and wanted to see the rest of the world, so he grew bored of living a quiet life in Baghdad.

Ans 2. After setting sail with his merchant friends, trading and making tidy profit, they came to an island that seemed to be covered with fruit trees. His friends went to gather fruits while Sindbad took his food and slept under a tree. When he woke up, he saw that the ship had gone and his companions had left him as well.

Ans 3. Sindbad tied himself to the leg of the bird with his turban and thus was lifted up from the island when the bird flew.

Ans 4. Sindbad found himself in a strange valley surrounded on all sides by the mountains. He found a long cave to hide in and rolled a large stone in front of the entrance to keep out the serpents.

Ans 5. He tied a large piece of meat to his back with his turban. He laid down with his face to the ground. An eagle came and carried him out of the valley.
