

Class Notes

Class: IV

Topic: 14. Subject-Verb Agreement.
Page No:77 ,78,79,80 and 81

Subject: English Grammar

INSTRUCTIONS: This work has to be done in Grammar Book.

Q. Fill in the blanks with is, are or am. (Page 77)

- A. I am a hockey player.
- B. We are waiting for the doctor.
- C. The stars are very bright today.
- D. The glass is empty.
- E. The sportsmen are quite fit.
- F. You are a good person.
- G. That is such a long queue.
- H. These fruits are sweet.
- I. Meena is a great teacher.

Q1. Choose the correct word to complete the sentences. (Page 78)

- A. Our house has (has/have) two bedrooms
- B. Ram and Ravi were (was/were) friends.
- C. He has (has/have) a pet dog.
- D. I was (was/were) fat in my childhood.
- E. We were (was/were) neighbours in Delhi.
- F. You have (has/have) a beautiful smile.
- G. This phone has (has/have) many new features.
- H. I have (has/have) a sister.
- I. You were (was/were) always a naughty child.
- J. They have (has/have) new bags.

Q2. Fill in the blanks with Is, am, are, has or have.(Page 79-80)

E. Chairs have arms and legs.

F. My cousins have computers.

G. The old man has a stick.

H. The dog has a collar around its neck.

I. My classroom has two windows.

J. My sister has long hair.

Q.5. Write predicates beginning with is, are, was, were, has or have for the following subjects.
(Page 81)

A. Each of these children has a bag.

B. All the children are playing .

C. Every child has a lunch box.

D. Two of the children are twins.

E. None of these children have answers.

F. Some children are good at studies.

G. Several children are happy today.

H. Only one child is working hard.

This content is prepared absolutely from home.