

Class Notes

Class-II

Topic - The Joy of Giving

Sub- Activity

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions:

It has been rightly said that joy multiplies when we share it with others and there is nothing that gives someone more joy than the joy of giving. The more we give, the happier we feel. The Joy of Giving Festival (Daan Utsav) is a popular world-wide concept which encourages the culture of giving among individuals and institutions.

Daan Utsav is India's biggest festival of giving, it is celebrated every year from October 2 to 8, during which people come together and perform acts of kindness by giving their time, material or money in interesting ways.

Daan Utsav is celebrated to give all people hope, happiness and faith that the world is not a bad place. That there are people who will always be there to help each other and support one another. All we need is a heart full of love and kindness and everyday can be a Daan Utsav.

1. How does joy multiply?

- A. by getting angry
- B. by sharing
- C. by being selfish

2. The more we give the _____ we feel.

- A. worst
- B. happier
- C. sadder

3. _____ is India's biggest festival of giving.

- A. Kite Festival
- B. Diwali
- C. Daan Utsav

4. All we need is a heart full of _____ and _____ then, everyday can be a Daan Utsav.

- A. love , kindness
- B. hatred, jealousy
- C. love, selfishness

5. How will you celebrate Daan Utsav? Describe in your own words.

Ans. _____

Note- Not to be written in notebook.