VALUES AND LIFE SKILLS

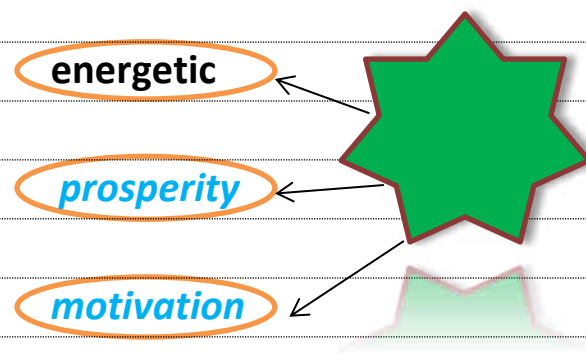

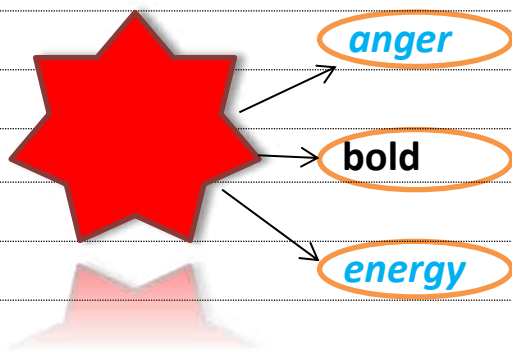

*empathy

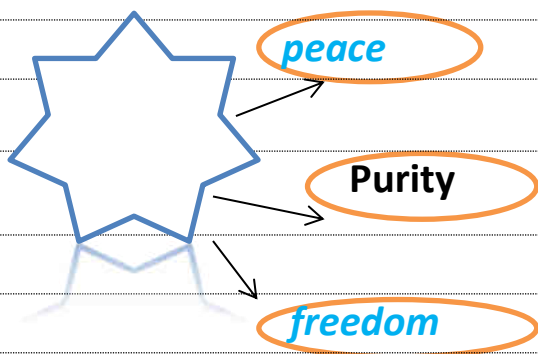

If you see a person slipping and falling , how would you react? Many of us laugh at other's misery. Do you think it is correct? Discuss.

Answer: If we see a person slipping and falling , we should not laugh . It is not correct to laugh at Others' misery. It shows that we are insensitive and have bad manners. The person who has fallen is embarrassed and if someone laughs at him, he feels worse. He may also be hurt . The right thing is to go and help that person and ask him if he is hurt. If required we should give him first aid.
