SECTION A: READING COMPREHENSION

Instruction for attempting Question number 1 to 7>> Answer the questions with reference to passage.

PASSAGE

The most valuable thing in the world is the time. Most of the things in the world can be increased or decreased. But it is not in one's control to extend even a single moment of time. As time goes on, a person has nothing but regret. Time is more important for the students. The aim of students is to get an education.

Education can be achieved only by utilizing the time properly. Students who lose their valuable time in fun, and laziness are repentant throughout their life because they are deprived of getting a good education and are unable to progress in life. Instead of worrying about the moments that have passed, it is the duty of man to make good use of time which is now in front of us.
