

CLASS NOTES

Class: V

Subject: English

Topic: ENGLISH FERRY

L-2 Rikki-tikki and Nag

INSTRUCTION:- To be written only in the book.

VOCABULARY (Page No: 22)

Colloquial language: A colloquial word or phrase is used in informal language.

Match the formal word/phrase with its colloquial form.

- |                       |                    |
|-----------------------|--------------------|
| 1. a talkative person | - Chatter box (e)  |
| 2. lazy               | - couch potato (f) |
| 3. grandmother        | - gran (a)         |
| 4. got to             | - gotta (b)        |
| 5. a child            | - kid (c)          |
| 6. mother             | - mum (d)          |

WRITING: (alternate ending) (Page No: 26)

Nag is dead and Rikki-tikki has saved Teddy and his family, but Nagaina is outside and she has her young snakes in the garden. What do you think will happen next?

Use the thought bubbles below to write down some ideas for how you think the story will end. One has been done for you.

Nagaina will take her young snakes and leave the bungalow

My Word Bank: (Page 26)

Read each word and look for its antonym in the story.

1. cheerful x sorrowful
2. safety x danger
3. conscious x faint / senseless
4. crowded x empty
5. alive x dead

CHARACTER SKETCH (only for reading)

Writing about a character ↗

• Writing about a character, whether fictional or real, involves noting and analyzing the person's / character's →

- personality
- actions
- values
- motives.

Why write a character sketch?

- To understand a character better.
- To think about what role the character played in fulfilling the author's message / theme of the novel.

Write the character sketch of Rikki-tikki-Tavi. (NOTE: To be done in the copy)

Rikki-tikki-Tavi is a baby mongoose who lives in a bungalow with his foster family. He displays courage, loyalty, cleverness and daring as he manages to kill the mighty Snake (Nag). He is a fighter for which he is very much a hero to other animals and a protector to the human family.

Note: This content has been prepared absolutely from home.