2. We need to maintain personal health and hygiene and welfare of family members.
3. We should extend a helping hand to the needy in whatever way one can.
4. We can spread awareness among the people by promoting health and hygiene for all
5. We must be compassionate and considerate towards everybody and should not indulge in any kind of discrimination.

Q2. What changes the new development had brought out in Sahodaya Enclave?

Answer: People of Sahodaya Enclave had become magnanimous towards everyone and they gave over themselves in several selfless activities. They expanded the hands of generosity by buying them essential items such as groceries, medicines, vegetables and fruits to the elderly who had restricted themselves going out due to the risk of contracting the virus. On the other hand, the ladies of the society cooked lunch everyday and distributed among the workers who were jobless. Moreover, Mr. Mathur opened the gates of his farmhouse as an isolation centre. However, residents of Sahodaya Enclave took remarkable steps to encounter the appalling pandemic.

Q3. How did the frontline workers inspire the whole nation?

Answer: While the infectious disease, caused by severe acute respiratory syndrome coronavirus 2 had swept through much of the world, the frontline warriors took the lead in fighting against the invisible enemy with immense courage and fortitude.

The doctors, nurses ,healthcare workers, medical staffs worked day and night by risking their lives with selfless determination for the sake of saving the human race. They were truly our heroes and they inspired the entire world by putting their own health, families and most importantly their own lives at risk. People, through out the country expressed heartfelt gratitude to these warriors by gleaming candles, diyas, lanterns etc. on 5th April,2020
