Q1. Read the passage and answer the questions that follow.

Once upon a time, there was a miser who used to hide his gold at the foot of a tree in his garden but every week he used to go and dig it up and gloat over his gains. A robber, who had noticed this, went and dug up the gold and stole it. When the miser next came to gloat over his treasures, he found nothing but the empty hole. He tore his hair and raised such an outcry that all the neighbours came around him and he told them how he used to come and visit his gold.

‘Did you ever take any of it out?’ asked one of them.

‘No’, said he, ‘I only came to look at it.’

Then the neighbour said, ‘Stop your weeping. Go and find a stone. Place the stone in the hole and imagine that it is your lump of gold. The stone will serve your purpose for you never meant to use the gold anyway.’ “To a miser, what he has is of no more use than what he has not.”
